MEMORANDUM FOR:

    Executive Secretary
    Personnel Security Committee, IG/CM(P)

FROM:

25X1

    Community Counterintelligence and Security
      Countermeasures Staff, IC Staff

SUBJECT: DCID 10037-85, A Study of Harassments and Provocations

REFERENCE: DCID 10037-85 dated 7 November 1985

1. The cited reference (copy attached) has been the subject of a number of inquiries to this office in recent months. Persons in the Agency and from other Community agencies/departments have asked for copies, and many asked if an updated version would be produced. The document is highly popular and useful in a number of ways, not the least of which is as a supplement to defensive travel briefings.
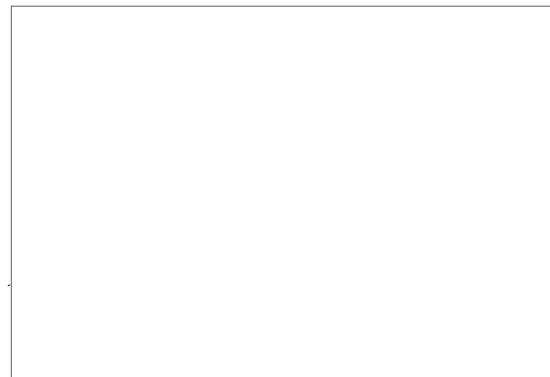

25X1

2. As you may be aware, this document and previous editions were produced by SECOM, with contributions from SECOM member organizations. This office supports the concept for production of an updated publication and offers staff assistance in compilation, recommendations for selection of items, and eventual publication. However, the initiation of action on the matter is not within the purview of the functional divisions of this office. The proposed action would seem to logically fall into the category of steps taken to carry out the countermeasures initiatives called for in the President's report.

25X1

3. It is recommended that such action be initiated within the Personnel Security Committee, IG/CM(P). If the Chairman, PSC, is willing to entertain this recommendation, the CCISCMS focal point to arrange for supporting action is the undersigned. It is emphasized that CCISCMS role is that of coordinating and supporting this effort with credit for publication going to PSC/IG/CM(P).
